

Bromic Heating – Product Overview Training

Please join me for one of the upcoming Product Overviews via Zoom. We will review both Electric and Gas Heater Solutions including product features and benefits, installation options and controls. I will also introduce you to a variety of sales resources available to Bromic Dealers. This is a great introduction to someone new to Bromic and Radiant Heat, but also a great refresher and update on new products for existing dealers.

Dates and times are listed below. The presentation is the same for each session. You do not need to attend multiple sessions. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Please share the invitation with coworkers and staff who would benefit from knowing more about Bromic's Heating Solutions.
